

Hypothes.is

Transcript

Hypothesis is an online social annotation tool. When you install it to your Sakai site, it automatically creates a private group between you, your students, and anyone else on your site. When you access documents through Hypothesis, you and your students are able to annotate the document and also view other people's annotations, which creates a collaborative learning experience.